Where to park:

Parking is extremely limited on University Park, so we would advise that you travel where possible, by public transport. If you do need to travel by car, please park in the Orange Zone areas highlighted on the map and display the enclosed parking permit. Please note that the Orange Zone parking is free for visitors and we politely request you avoid the Pay and Display car parks located across the campus as you will be charged a fee to park in these areas and spaces are very limited.
