

CAN THE WEST LIVE WITH Islam?

A Debate featuring

Nigel Biggar

Regius Professor of Moral and Pastoral Theology, Oxford University

Timothy Winter

Sheikh Zayed Lecturer in Islamic Studies, Cambridge University

Tuesday 7th February 2012, 4.30 for 5.00 p.m.

Keble College, Oxford

- For Whom? This event is open to all. NB numbers are limited to 60, so please book early by sending an email (one for each person attending) to KebleTheology@googlemail.com.
- What? Both speakers are prominent figures in the national and international conversation about religion in public life. Nigel Biggar is a prominent author and speaker on the contribution of religion to the health of liberal societies, including the development of a concept of 'public reason' that permits the engagement of metaphysically contradictory positions. Timothy Winter is a leading British Muslim scholar who has lectured and written widely on Islamic topics including on the contribution of Islam in the West.
- When? 7th February 2012, 5 p.m. Tea is served from 4.30 p.m., drinks at 6.30.
- Where? Roy Griffiths Room, Keble College, Oxford OX1 3PG.
- For further information about Keble College see www.keble.ox.ac.uk.

Sponsored by Hursley Theological Society, Keble College

M. Bockmuehl
Dec 2012