

The Department of Theology and Religion

Gillian Rose

A Retrospective

9th January 2015

Speakers:

Irene Lancaster

Andrew Brower Latz

John Milbank

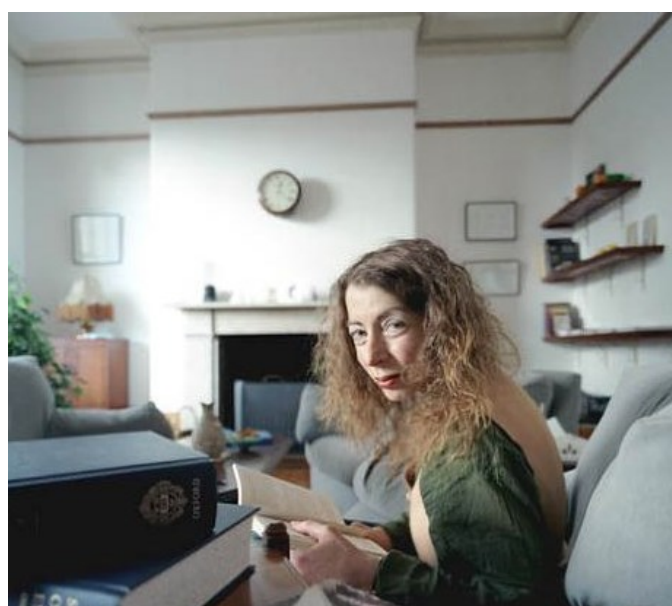

Peter Osborne

Marcus Pound

Andrew Shanks

Rowan Williams

Further speakers TBC

Gillian Rose's work spans Adorno, Hegel, sociology, philosophy, jurisprudence, post-structuralism, the Frankfurt School, Marxism, anthropology, literature, Jewish and Christian theology, death, Auschwitz, Feminism, and more. This conference brings together some of the foremost scholars on Rose's work to discuss her continued relevance for social theory, politics, Marxism, theology, Hegel and Žižek, amongst other critical streams, twenty years after her untimely death.

CALL FOR PAPERS: If you wish to offer a paper on any aspect of Rose's work please send an abstract to Andrew Brower Latz at andrew.brower-latz@durham.ac.uk

Venue: Durham Business School

10.00am—18.45pm

£50 (buffet and refreshments included)

Cheques should be made payable

'Durham University, Centre for Catholic Studies'

Send to Dr Pound, Dept. Theology and Religion, Durham University, Abbey House, Palace Green, Durham DH1 3RS

There will be a meal afterwards (not included)

To register or to enquire about student concessions contact andrew.brower-latz@durham.ac.uk; or Tel: 0191 33 41656

www.centreforcatholicstudies.co.uk