

IS INTERFAITH DEAD?

LIFE IN THE AGE OF GLOBAL RELIGIONS

A Workshop with

Dr Edward Kessler, MBE

Director of the Woolf Institute and Fellow of St Edmund's College, Cambridge

Tuesday 2 December 2014, 5.00 p.m.

Keble College, Oxford

- For Whom? This event is open to all. NB numbers are limited to 60, so please book early by sending an email (one for each person attending) to KebleTheology@gmail.com.
- What? The post-secularist rise and rise of religion seemed to catch Western liberal intelligentsias unawares. Previous ideas about 'interfaith' lowest common denominators have suddenly run aground on dynamic religious realities that re-accentuate not only the old tensions between 'us' and 'them', but increasingly also between 'us' and 'us'. Edward Kessler, founder and director of Cambridge's Woolf Institute for Jewish, Christian and Muslim relations, will engage hard truths and fresh opportunities for the future of religion on the 21st century stage.
- Where? Pusey Room, Keble College, Parks Road, Oxford OX1 3PG.
