

University of Nottingham

UK | CHINA | MALAYSIA

Theology and Religious Studies
nottingham.ac.uk/theology

The Firth Lectures

Humans and Animals: Boundary Questions and Why They are Significant for Theology and Ethics

from Prof. Celia Deane-Drummond

Senior Research Fellow in Theology, Campion Hall, Oxford

Director of the Laudato Si' Research Institute

Lecture 1: Theology and the Evolution of Violence: Are We Wired for War or Peace?

8th April, Live Q&A 6.00-6.30pm

Tickets available at thefirthlectures2021day1.eventbrite.co.uk

Lecture 2: Humans are Animals but Are Animals Persons? Implications for Theological Ethics.

9th April, Live Q&A 6.00-6.30pm

Tickets available at thefirthlectures2021day2.eventbrite.co.uk

Be sure to watch the pre-recorded lectures before joining the Microsoft Teams Live Q&A's.

The link to access the lectures and to join the Microsoft Teams events will be sent with your ticket once you have signed up via Eventbrite.

The lectures will be available to watch online at bit.ly/3cZoyEK